

To: Presidents and National Representatives of EFLM Member Societies

Dear All,

This is to announce that EFLM is promoting 5 bursaries for young scientists attending the:

3rd EFLM-UEMS European Joint Congress
Laboratory medicine at the clinical interface
7-10 October 2014 - Liverpool, UK
<http://www.eurolabfocus2014.org/>

The bursaries will cover the cost of the travel, 3-night accommodation and registration fee for a maximum of Eur 1200.

Eligible candidates must come from an EFLM Member Society and meet the following criteria:

- 1) Young participants (those in training or up to 5 years after completing training);
- 2) Having a poster abstract accepted.

Please send your applications to eflm@efcclm.eu within July 10, 2014. Applicants will be notified of the bursaries acceptance by 15 July 2014.

Applications must be accompanied with:

- 1) Short CV,
- 2) Copy of the ID or passport,
- 3) List of publications,
- 4) Letter of recommendation from the National Society,
- 5) Notification of poster acceptance.

Preference shall be given to candidates with publications in Scientific Journals with high IF.

With kindest regards,

Maria Stella Graziani
Chair of the EFLM WG-Promotion
